How will your complaint be handled?

Mountain Transit Authority investigates complaints received no more than 180 days after the alleged incident. Mountain Transit Authority will process complaints that are complete. Once a completed complaint is received, Mountain Transit Authority will review it to determine if Mountain Transit Authority has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive an acknowledgement letter informing her/him whether the complaint will be investigated by Mountain Transit Authority.

Mountain Transit Authority will generally complete an investigation within 90 days from receipt of a completed complaint form. If more information is needed to resolve the case, Mountain Transit Authority may contact the complainant. Unless a longer period is specified by Mountain Transit Authority, the complainant will have ten (10) days from the date of the letter to send requested information to the Mountain Transit Authority investigator assigned to the case.

If Mountain Transit Authority investigator is not contacted by the complainant or does not receive the additional information within the required timeline, Mountain Transit Authority may administratively close the case. A case may be administratively closed also if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue their case.

After an investigation is complete, Mountain Transit Authority will issue a letter to the complainant summarizing the results of the investigation, stating the findings and advising of any corrective action to be taken as a result of the investigation. If a complainant disagrees with Mountain Transit Authority determination, he/she may request reconsideration by submitting a request in writing to Mountain Transit Authority Title VI Coordinator within seven (7) days after the date of Mountain Transit Authority letter, stating with specificity the basis for the reconsideration. The Title VI Coordinator will notify the complainant of his decision either to accept or reject the request for reconsideration within 10 days. In cases where reconsideration is granted, the Title VI Coordinator will issue a determination letter to the complainant upon completion of the reconsideration review.

A person may also file a complaint directly with the Federal Transit Administration, at FTA Office of Civil Rights, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590.

If information is needed in another language, then contact Mountain Transit Authority at (304) 872-5872.
